Good morning,we have been getting tons of harassing calls from people everyday day through the weekdays,about saleing our property. We seen on the news about a pipeline running through the area as well. Alot of us that own our home,we're not being offered the right price to move. This is why alot of people in the area won't sale,and these are our homes where we have stayed or some properties were inherited down through generations,please respond back,thank you.

Sincerley,
A Boxtown Resident
